HIDDEN MEXICO

Discover a charming region south of Vallarta rich in natural beauty, history and culture

Palm trees give way to pine trees as you venture into the beautiful mountains south of Vallarta on this guided tour. With spectacular scenery, quaint villages and fresh mountain air, experience an entirely different side of Mexico—one that seems worlds away from the beaches of Vallarta.

- Fun transportation in our Unimog 4x4 vehicles
- Guided stroll through the famous Vallarta Botanical Gardens
- Visit a primitive, wood-fired stove bakery and sample the traditional breads
- Admire pre-Hispanic petroglyphs that are over 1,200 years old
- Stroll through the traditional mountain town of El Tuito on a guided tour, visiting the town plaza, church, tortilleria, local cheese maker and more
- Savor a delicious lunch at a countryside inn and organic farm while eating at a table set in a refreshing river
- Tour a local tequila factory and see how this regional spirit is made
- Enjoy an open bar during the return trip
- Small groups to allow more flexibility Moderate
